Chocolate Parties

Chocolate parties are fantastic fun, they allow children to break the normal rules and play with their food". One thing you can always guarantee is that chocolate is a hit at parties!

We only use high quality fair trade chocolate for our pirate parties as we do for our events because it's never too early to appreciate good chocolate!

- Guests learn the legends of chocolate.
- Guests enjoy chocolate tastings.
- Guests hand mould and decorate milk chocolate lollipops.
- Chocolate based games.
- Chocolate themed music is provided.

Endless Chocolate Fountain with Treats for Dipping. Guests are greeted with Melted Fairtrade chocolate continuously running through our large chocolate fountain. It's absolutely scrumptious. The kids will have fun dipping and eating fresh fruit, marshmallows. (in the winter we can add hot chocolate drinks throughout the event)

Walk the plank Chocolate Game

Pirates will have to prove their salt by walking the plank over a shark infested lagoon whilst blindfolded with a pirates bandana.

X marks the spot treasure hunt

Like pin the tail on the donkey but with chocolate as prizes.

Chocolate lollipop making

Everyone creates two giant chocolate lollipops and then they get to show off their creative side and decorate them, prizes are awarded for the most creative design.

Decorating lollies is a doddle – we've got chocolate shavings, hundreds and thousands, popping candy and chocolate buttons and more. and they will have even more fun eating their creations.
